Care That is all About you

Here at Edward Moore House, we cater for a wide range of care and support needs, welcoming residents for both short-term respite placements and on a permanent basis. Our care team also provide palliative care, often referred to as end of life care.

Our home is suitable for older people who are finding it difficult to cope alone at home and require an increased level of care and support. Our care team are on hand 24/7 to provide care and support, though we are not registered to provide nursing care.

Before you move in with us, we will meet with you and a loved one if you wish, to get a good picture of who you are. We will find out more about your likes, dislikes and aspirations, to really understand how you like to live your life. Together, we will put together a personalised care plan, which will determine the level and type of care and support we give you. As your care plan is completely person centred, if your needs change, your plan will be reviewed too.

To talk to us about your care and support needs just give us a call, our care team would be happy to help.

What Shall we do Today?

Relaxing in the summer house or helping the kitchen staff prepare a pizza, how you like to spend your day is your choice.

Our full-time activity coordinator works with residents to organise a varied and stimulating calendar of activities and events, as well as supporting residents to continue with their own hobbies and interests.

Daily activities vary but can include gentle exercise classes, tea dances, crafting and baking to name a few. Connected to the local community, we have established some valuable relationships with local groups such as Brownies and school children, who often visit our residents. During the warmer months, our residents like to get out and about, having picnics in the park, attending local events and exploring the Kent coastline.

Our visiting hours are unrestricted; thus, guests are welcome to drop in and join us for an activity or cup of tea, we believe this contributes to our welcoming family atmosphere.

What's Cooking?

Seasonal and freshly prepared home cooked meals. Here at Edward Moore House food is as much about sensation, enjoyment and socialising as it is about nutrition and sustenance, mealtimes are an activity in themselves, as everyone comes together to catch up over a delicious meal. As we encourage a sociable atmosphere, your guests are welcome to join you for a meal, for a small charge.

Menus are reflective of the season and are regularly reviewed with the residents' input. Our kitchen team like to serve the meals and talk to residents about what they enjoyed, what they would like to try and what they felt could be improved.

A choice is available at breakfast, lunch and dinner and if you don't fancy any of the options, just let us know and we will arrange something else for you. Tea, coffee and cakes are served in the afternoon and snacks are freely available throughout the day and night.

Special events are often celebrated, whether that is a special meal on Valentine's Day or a barbecue in the summer. Our team are open to suggestions, so if there is something you would like to try, just let us know.

We can cater for special diets, including those things you are not so keen on, so do feel free to discuss your requirements with our team.
